

There are many mens fashion designers that accessorize the discerning gentleman today. The quality, workmanship and detail of the collection creates an image for the designer and the buyer.

Present day people buy these accessories, thinking of how the past helps shape them to today.

Where the “Old World” matches present day.

From the past, moments of yesterday.

A reflection on generations and legacies for mens fashion.

How sports influences mens fashion.

From the discerning gentleman, to the relaxed banker, to the artist.

Where do they seek for accretments.

Which designers feel they can express their passion.

What influences the desire.

From the lightweight to the heavyweight, there are many boxing gyms, that allow the public to come and see the boxers preparing for competition. For example in the WBA, first founded in 1921, the current lightweight champion is Vasyl Lomachenko, light heavyweight Dmitry Bivol, and the heavyweight is Andy Ruiz. In the New York region, gyms include Gleasons in Brooklyn, Mendez Boxing NY, and Johns Boxing Gym.

Questions and answers.

What do men think about bracelets?

What makes you gravitate towards an accessory when purchasing?

What makes you desire a product or collection?

Mens fashion today has gone on for generations. Mens fashion has evolved since the 1920s 1930s 1940s (Fashion at that time)

Emil Kahn Lifestyle jewelery captures those moments.

Affiliated with Bergdorf Goodman.